Exhibit A

The Exchange Club Family Center Domestic Violence Assessment Center (DVAC) Scope of Services – 2009-2010

1. Clients are referred in two ways. Defendants can be referred prior to disposition by one of the General Sessions Courts or Criminal Courts or they can be referred after being placed on probation. The Attorney General schedules the defendant and forwards an appointment list to DVAC. Incarcerated defendants and probationers are seen at the Shelby County Jail.
2. The assessment focuses on assessing risk to recidivate, and risk for further domestic violence. DVAC uses several validated risk assessment instruments and also uses multiple sources of information (police and court records, victim interviews, etc.). Treatment recommendations are also developed with the focus of reducing risk.
3. The assessment can be completed within one appointment that is generally less than three hours. The defendant is first seen for a brief screening interview to insure that the process and purpose of the evaluation is understood. Reading and comprehension are assessed. The defendant then completes a selected battery of test instruments. Finally, a brief, structured clinical interview is conducted.
4. A report is generated for every defendant. A summary of results of the various risk assessments is included. Treatment recommendations are detailed and a rationale for each recommendation is offered.
5. If final disposition has not been made the report is forwarded to the Office of the Attorney General at least one day prior to the court hearing. If a final disposition has been made and the defendant is on probation, the report is forwarded to the appropriate probation office. Reports can also be sent to treatment providers and victim advocates when requested. Victims may also have access to the reports.
6. The Exchange Club Family Center will invoice the County for the cost per assessment that is not covered by fees collected. Costs will be invoiced to the COUNTY at a rate of $316.00 for incarcerated individuals and $255.00 for non-incarcerated individuals, but in no event shall the total amount billed for the contract period exceed the total amount of the contract as agreed upon in Section II, Subsection 2.
7. DVAC attempts to contact, by telephone, the victim of every arrest in order to provide safety planning information, information about available community resources and obtain information to assist in assessing risk and making treatment recommendations. DVAC also provides, to the Attorney General a "preliminary" risk assessment, based on arrest reports and criminal histories, for every arrest within two days.
